Practical implications of the Right to Time

ON-SITE EVENT

ENGLISH

Parallel work sessions around key topics related to the right to time. Each session will count on a keynote speaker and good practices from cities setting the framework. Following, there will be an interactive dynamic where we will pose challenges to be solved by the participants from their cities' perspectives.

Workshop 1: Time for Democracy

Exploring the connection between time and democratic participation, the workshop will pose challenges that connect Democracy with gender, youth and social background.

This workshop will count with the participation of:

Antonella Valmorbida

European Association for Local Democracy (ALDA)

Workshop 2: Our children's time

After listening to children about their time concerns, we will use their inputs to think about what kind of policies we can apply in our cities to answer their needs.

This workshop will count with the participation of:

Elisa Stinus

Barcelona Institute of childhood and Adolescence.

Taller 3: Caring cities: let's discuss care and time

The relationship between care needs and time is usually a fraught one. This workshop will explore how time can be integrated into caring policies projects, and specifically within the caring cities concept.

This workshop will count with the participation of:

Co-organised with the
Barcelona Provincial Council
